

INTERCOLLEGIATE ART HISTORY SYMPOSIUM

Call For Submissions

Students from the School of the Art Institute of Chicago and the University of Chicago are pleased to announce the third annual Intercollegiate Symposium for individuals completing their bachelor's degree in Art History or other related fields that strongly incorporate art historical research. The symposium will be held in the SAIC Ballroom on Sunday, April 19 and will be free and open to the public. It will be an all-day event.

We invite you to share your work in a setting that has the intention to foster inventive dialogues between institutions, methodologies, and histories of art.

The symposium is open to graduating undergraduates from all Chicago-area schools. Students interested in participating should send their name, school, brief author bio, and proposal in .doc/.docx format in an email to iahsymposium@gmail.com. The proposal document should contain an abstract of 200-250 words as well as an essay of roughly 6-8 pages with necessary figures/images. The title of the proposal document should be the name of your essay (ex. "Art and Objecthood.doc"). Presentations will last no more than 10-15 minutes. Please do NOT include your name, school, or author bio in your proposal document as it will ease the blind review process. Only include this information in the email.
