INDIGENEOUS AND MIGRANT: A METHOD FOR DECOLONIZING CHICAGO

Assistant Professor Shiben Banerji

Shiben Banerji is a historian of US imperialism and the cultural politics of globality. In this talk, Shiben revisits his Fall 2019 Decolonization Dinner Faculty Lecture. Titled "Indigeneous and Migrant," the talk raises the possibility of turning SAIC into a site for Ojibwe language revitalization, and argues that learning a First Societies language is fundamental to decolonizing the Americas.
